Why are you involved with EWB?

- I am privileged to be a grad student in a high quality academic institution, and, being in that position, I want to be able to give back some of what's been given to me. I feel it is important, though, not just to give, but to give in such a way that's agreeable with my personal values and beliefs. EWB-OSU fits that bill nicely. I very much appreciate EWB's organizational philosophy, which encourages its members not to give something that's unwanted and to treat their philanthropy not just as charity but as an opportunity to spread their knowledge.
