Short Answer Questions

Travelers are expected to commit a minimum of 8 hours per month to EWB from now until Spring Break 2008. Describe your current and projected involvement in Engineers Without Borders. How do you see yourself participating in subsequent project work (including fundraising, design, organization, planning, and implementation)?

During this trip, travelers will continue the implementation of a water system in El Naranjito/Las Mercedes, El Salvador. Briefly describe any skills or experiences you can contribute towards this goal.

Many different individuals and communities are committed to this project. Travelers must be able to share and clearly communicate a common vision. Explain one of the following words to an eight year old: humanitarian, sustainability, partnership, social responsibility.

Essay Question

What does participating in this project mean to you? How will you use this opportunity to further your academic, personal, and/or career ambitions?
